

Joe Frey

Joe is a professional engineer and urban design enthusiast with 22 years of experience on a wide variety of projects throughout the southeastern U.S. Joe has been with the City of Charlotte Engineering and Property Department since 2003, where he specializes in projects focused on increasing transportation choices by improving connectivity and safety for pedestrians and cyclists moving around the City. Since 2014 he has been the City's Implementation Manager over the Cross

Charlotte Trail project.

In his free time Joe can be frequently found pedaling a bike or jogging around the Queen City and heard speaking of the many benefits of active transportation everywhere he goes. He graduated cum laude from the University of Buffalo in 1995, is a member of the Urban Land Institute and the Association of Pedestrian and Bicycle Professionals.