

Bryan Stange

Director of Business Development

Mashburn Construction

Columbia, SC

Bryan is a native of Greensboro, NC, and is a graduate of North Carolina State University. Bryan is a licensed General Contractor, and works with Mashburn Construction's clients to develop commercial projects, primarily in South Carolina. Prior to moving to Charleston in 2013, he worked as business development manager for an engineering company in Wilmington, NC. Bryan and his wife Kendell have three boys (Murphy, Reid and Winslow) and Bryan spends much of his free time playing sports with them, and taking them fishing.
